Much-loved citizen passes away

WAUCHOPE lost a much-loved and respected citizen when Edna Ivy Allan, pictured below, passed away on May 4, 2000 at Wauchope Hospital after a short illness.

She was born at Rawdon Island, the second daughter of Frederick and Ivy Freeman, and attended Rawdon Island School.

In 1928 she married John William Allan at Rawdon Island Church of England. They raised four children, living at Wauchope and Fernbank before moving to Gannons Creek where they operated a dairy farm until Jack passed away in 1973.

After moving back to Wauchope in 1974, Edna developed her talents for craft, especially crochet and knitting, and gardening. She became an active member of the Uniting Church, VIEW Club,

Obituary notices

Senior Citizens and Bago Day Care. She was a life member of Wauchope Show Society and was the most successful exhibitor in knitting and crochet at numerous shows.

Being of a quiet and unassuming disposition, Edna devoted much of her life to her family and friends, to whom she was deeply attached. As she was always gracious, kind, caring and true, she leaves behind many beautiful memories.

She is mourned by her children - Joyce, Joan, Zelma and John, sons-in-law Len and Tony, daughter-in-law Gwen, seven grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren as well as her sisters Olga McCudden and Val Pead and her many relatives and friends. She was predeceased by her husband Jack, brothers Fred and Ron and sister Essie.

After a service at the Uniting Church, Wauchope, conducted by the Reverend John Quieripel, assisted by Reverend David Taylor, she was laid to rest at Wauchope Cemetery.
