Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Coombes, of 19 Bridge Street, Port Macquarie, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary last Sunday.

They were married on the 29th January, 1904.

Both Mrs. Mary Ellen Coombes and Mr. Isaac Coombes are 80 years of age. They had eleven children, four of whom are deceased; 45 grandchildren, and 35 great-grand-children.

The celebration on Sunday was held at the residence of Mr. Jeff Coombes, of Long Flat.

Despite the fact that it was only a family concern with a few close friends attending—guests numbered over 100 people.

The celebration started at 6 p.m. when the family was held until the midnight supper. After this, festivities continued to the small hours of the morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Coombes lived on the Forbes River for eighteen years, where Mr. Coombes farmed and worked on the timber, especially with the bullock teams. They then farmed for twenty years at Long Flat, spent eight years on timber work at Dorrigo and then retired to Port Macquarie.

The early life of the Coombes couple would interest many Hastings two days by horse and sulky from Port Macquarie. This was replaced by a coach and, later on, a Model T Ford which broke down many times on its run.

Mr. I. Coombes also worked on the bullock teams; his father, Mr. John Coombes, brought the last load of wool by bullock team to Port Macquarie.

Although there were no luxuries or entertainment as today, life was not dull during those first 18 years on the Forbes. The Governor Boys lived things up considerably. Mr. Coombes related a few incidences involving him and his relatives:

Two of the Governor

ily and friends were seated for supper.

The chairman, Mr. Phillip Coombes, then explained the purpose of the festivities and told of the past life of Mr. and Mrs. Coombes. Further speeches were made by Mr. Arthur Hollis, Mr. Allen Higgins and the three sons Jimmy, Jeff and Tom Coombes.

These speeches confirmed what the chairman had said and explained the high esteem held by the family and all who know Mr. and Mrs. Coombes.

Mrs. Coombes responded to these speeches as Mr. Coombes is a man of action more than a man of words.

The wedding cake was cut during the supper by Mrs. Coombes. This was made by Mrs. T. Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coombes, and decorated by Mrs. Jeff Coombes. The "News" reporter was given a sample of this cake which was immediately declared "A" class.

The family presented an electric fan to Mr. and Mrs. Coombes. The chairman had the honour of handing the present over to the couple.

Presents were received from friends, relatives, the family and even from people the Coombes' couple had only an acquaintance.

Congratulations were received from the Sawtell Bowling Club, Wauchope Bowling Club, Brindell's Mills and others. Telegrams were numerous.

Community singing to three guitars and a general re-union of the family and friends were seated for supper.

The chairman, Mr. Phillip Coombes, then explained the purpose of the festivities and told of the past life of Mr. and Mrs. Coombes. Further speeches were made by Mr. Arthur Hollis, Mr. Allen Higgins and the three sons Jimmy, Jeff and Tom Coombes.

These speeches confirmed what the chairman had said and explained the high esteem held by the family and all who know Mr. and Mrs. Coombes.

One Disc Plough

The ground was ploughed with a one disc plough, pulled by six bullocks. Horses were few on the Forbes and were mainly reserved for transport.

Food and meat were supplied from their own property as stores were brought in only once a month.

These stores were brought from Sydney to Port Macquarie by sailing ship and then were taken by team or river to Wauchope. (The Wauchope of those days had only one shop owned by Mr. Frank Marchmont and later on Mr. N. J. Lindsay set up another). Bullock teams then pulled the loads from Wauchope, through the farming districts, to Yarras.

The mail came every

Boys, Joe Governor and Jimmy Governor, sighted a hut on the Forbes early in the morning. They then stayed behind a large log until evening before approaching the hut to see whether the hut was occupied.

MR. NED COOMBES

Inside the hut was Mr. Ned Coombes, cousin of Mr. Isaac Coombes also police troopers and a man called Byres, who had hunted the Governors from the Riverina. Byres had vowed to shoot Jimmy Governor to avenge one of their killings. These men gave no sign of life to the Governors who unsuspectingly began walking to the hut. The police had to restrain Byres from shooting as the Governors came within 25 yards of the hut. A fowl was disturbed and flew onto a basin on the roof. The basin fell with a crash and the Governors fled to a large tree for shelter. A gun fight ensued as the police fired through cracks in the wall and the Governors fired at the tell-tale puffs through these cracks. Byres shot Jimmy Governor in the mouth as he poked his head around the tree. The Governors then fled down a gully and away.

BLOOD TRAIL

Mr. Isaac Coombes told how he helped in the trailing of the blood next day to the river where the Governors had waded a quarter of a mile upstream and hid. There they counted fourteen troopers passing by until they waded downstream again. Mr. Ned Coombes is now residing in Taree.

On their way down, as far as Mr. Coombes could remember, two Governors called in to a homestead where Mr. William Coombes was chopping firewood. As the police were about, the Governors took Mr. William Coombes with them for some miles until they sent him across the river to a farm and fled. Mr. William Coombes was the first cousin of Mr. Isaac Coombes.

Mrs. Coombes especially remembers the depression. They were farming at Long Flat at that time, according to Mrs. Coombes, and a continual stream of unemployed would call in for food. The North Coast offered little work during the depression and the bulk of the unemployed went out west along the Oxley Highway. Mrs. Coombes wondered how she would feed them all when they came in twos and threes but she never had to turn one away without some food.

P.M. News 30/1/1984

MRS. JAMES COOMBES.

There passed away on the 6th inst., after being in failing health for some considerable time, an old and respected resident of the Forbes River in the person of Mrs. James Coombes (formerly Miss Rosanna Lennon). She was married 58 years ago on the 12th October last at Waterloo Station, New England, the officiating clergyman having to ride from Armidale on horseback. Mr. Coombes was at that time engaged as stockman on Yarrowitch Station, of which Mr. T. Binnie was overseer. In the year 1869 Mr. and Mrs. Coombes went to reside on the Forbes River where they had since lived. Deceased would have been 82 years old on April 24th next. The issue of the union was four sons and five daughters, and there are 46 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. The deceased lady was one of the old school—generous almost to a fault, and no traveller was ever turned hungry from her door. She was a true helpmate to her husband, and many a hard struggle the venerable couple had in the rugged days of old to rear their young family—when conditions were vastly different from what they are to-day.

We accord our sympathy to the bereaved relatives.

PMN

PRIVATE ARTHUR JAMES COOMBES.

PMN 26 AUG 1916 P 63
An official notification was received by his relatives on Saturday last that Private A. J. ("Mick") Coombes, of Rollands Plains, had been killed in action. Deceased, who was 37 years of age, and unmarried, was a son of the late Mr. Harry Coombes and Mrs. Coombes. He was a prosperous farmer at the time he enlisted, working "Clar-field" on "shares" with his brother, Mr. Phil. Coombes, and had grazing interests on the upper river. "Mick" was a typical big-hearted Australian—a good "sport," and a liberal subscriber to the patriotic funds. Like most of his countrymen he loved a good horse, and took a keen interest in racing. He was deeply concerned as to the result of the war, and decided it was his duty to take his place in the firing line. His aged mother resides at Rollands Plains.

UNKNOWN FRIENDS.—There are many people who have used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy with splendid results, but who are unknown because they have hesitated about giving a testimonial of their experience for publication. These people, however, are none the less friends to this remedy. They have done much towards making it a household word by their personal recommendations to friends and neighbours. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy is a good medicine to have in the home and is widely known for its cures of diarrhoea and all forms of bowel trouble. For sale by Hallett Bros., Port Macquarie.

On Tuesday week Mr. W. O'Connor had the misfortune to have the first finger on the right hand badly torn, through being caught in a planing machine at Hamilton mills. We are pleased to say that he is progressing well towards recovery.

The champion Australian swimmer, B. B. Kieran, died in Brisbane Hospital last week, as a result of an operation for appendicitis. The deceased had already a great record at home and abroad, and his decease at such an early age is to be very much regretted.

THAT dreadful word 'consumption' need never be feared if Dr. Sheldon's New Discovery is taken in time. Thousands speak of it in the highest praise. For sale by F. Hayward, Port Macquarie, and J. Hibbard & Son, Hamilton.

The annual meeting of the H. R. J. Club takes place on Monday and Tuesday next, and should fine weather prevail, the meeting this year should prove highly successful. Good entries have been received and already several horses have arrived from the adjoining rivers.

Mr. Thos. Maher, at L65 2s 6d, was the lowest tenderer for road contract No. 34-56, Kew to Ravenswood.

Obituary.

At Clarefield, on the afternoon of December 24th, Mr. H. A. Oombes passed quietly away (surrounded by his family and friends) after a long and trying illness which he bore with great patience. All that medical skill and loving care could do was done for him, but, despite all, he gradually sank from day to day, so that his end was not unexpected notwithstanding that it was keenly felt by his family. It was beautiful to see the untiring devotion and affection with which he was nursed by his grown up sons during those ten weeks of weary watching; friends and neighbours also rendering any assistance in their power. His funeral took place on Tuesday, 26th inst., at the Port Macquarie cemetery, being the 68th anniversary of his birthday. Deceased was born in Staffsbury, England, came out here with his parents at 11 years of age, and has resided in the State ever since—most, if not all of the time in this district. He was married at Filly Flat 41 years ago, and leaves a widow and grown up family of 6 sons and 3 daughters—4 being married, 2 sons and 2 daughters. He was a kind husband, and affectionate father; a true friend and a good neighbour, was strictly honest, and held in contempt anything dishonorable and mean. Eighteen years ago he removed from the Upper Hastings to R. Plains, where he will be much missed, and where we feel sure all unite in extending their sympathy to the bereaved family.

"After lifes fitful fever—
He sleeps well."

It is with feelings of regret we are called upon to chronicle the death of another old resident, in the person of Mr. B. O'Doherty, which occurred on Saturday last, at the age of 67 years, from heart failure. Deceased was born in Ireland, and came to Australia with his parents when very young. He afterwards married and settled in this district, where he has resided ever since. Mr. O'Doherty was always honest and upright in his actions, which made for him a large circle of friends. Deceased leaves 5 daughters and 2 sons to mourn their loss, all of whom have our deepest sympathy in their bereavement. The funeral took place at Wauchops on Sunday afternoon, the Rev. P. M. Ryan performing the last sad rites.

MR. JOHN COOMBES

On Sunday night, 3rd October, the call to his last home came to that grand old pioneer, Mr. John Coombes, of Fern Hill, Forbes River, known far and wide as "Uncle Johnny."

Deceased was born in Dorsetshire, England, on 28th May, 1844, and, at the early age of five years came to Australia with his parents and other members of the family. They sailed from Plymouth in the "Victoria," and landed at Newcastle in July, 1849, where the father and elder sons worked for a short time. However, finding the work uncongenial, they decided to take work in the country, and proceeded by bullock dray to Tamworth and thence to Walcha and Yarrowitch, where they shepherded for Richard and William Denn

Of course, in those days, few fences were in existence, and the sheep had to be watched by night, as well as by day, as much from natives, then in their primitive state, as from wild dogs. Many and varied were the experiences of the shepherds.

Later on, the family moved on to Moorabark, where two daughters were killed by a rolling log.

After some years of shepherding on different properties in the Walcha district, the Coombes family moved on to the Forbes River in the year 1859, where the late Phillip Coombes had acquired a small holding known as Filly Flat. (This is now the property of Mr. Cecil Lyon). The sons, now grown to man's estate, engaged in growing wheat and maize on the homestead block, besides wool carting from New England to Port Macquarie, together with the Noakes family, Joseph Yeldham, the Hollis', Jas Gilles, the Kilmurrays, Henry done by bullock dray, but later on waggons came into general use.

"Uncle Johnny" claimed to have carried the largest load of wool from Yarrowitch to Port Macquarie, and also the last load to come down the old New England Road. This was a load of ten bales brought from Tia Station. He left there on Good Friday in 1881, and had a good trip, which occupied three weeks. Naturally, having been associated so closely with this road, it was fitting that the subject of this notice should, many years later, be closely identified with the agitation for its re-opening, and, whatever may be said to the contrary, it can be truthfully said that Mr. John Coombes was primarily responsible for bringing the matter under the notice of our Parliamentary representative at that time—Mr. J. J. Fitzgerald, Minister for Local Government. It will be recalled that Mr. Fitzgerald made the first grant of £6000 available for this work, which eventually culminated in the construction of that portion of the Oxley Highway from Yarras to Yarrowitch.

Shearing, and cedar and timber getting engaged his attention at different times; in fact, in his 98 years of useful and busy life there were few things to which he did not turn his hand with a fair measure of success.

Late in life, Mr. Coombes served as a councillor of Hastings Shire for one term, but found that his age would not permit him to do justice to the job in hand. However, he always continued to take a keen interest in any matter for the advancement of the district, and during his long life lived to see the Hastings Valley change from a sparsely populated bushland to a fertile, productive and well populated rural area, and the growth of Wauchope from nothing to the thriving township it is to-day.

About 1879 the late Mr. Coombes settled on the property now known as Fern Hill, and married Miss Sarah Cameron, of the Upper Hastings. Here the young couple carved out a home for themselves, and a family of ten came to bless the union. One daughter died in infancy; the third son, Alf, was killed in action in the Great War of 1914-18; and David died in 1933 from injuries received from a falling tree. Mrs. Coombes predeceased her husband by 25 years—28th August, 1917—since which time his daughter, Alice (Mrs. R. Young) has ministered to his needs with loving care; and hers has been a splendid example of devotion to an aged father. The other surviving members of the family are: Sons—Isaac, Coffs Harbour; Walter and Edmund, Forbes River; and daughters—Mrs. W. H. Pritchard, Wauchope; Mrs. E. J. Hibbard, Yarras; and Mrs. C. H. Reynolds, Wollongong.

On Monday afternoon, 5th October, the remains were laid to rest beside those of his late wife on the homestead property, Canon J. W. Symonds conducting the burial service, the funeral arrangements being in the hands of Mr. L. J. Piggott.—Shire

John Coombes

HE whom this scroll commemorates was numbered among those who, at the call of King and Country, left all that was dear to them, endured hardness, faced danger, and finally passed out of the sight of men by the path of duty and self-sacrifice, giving up their own lives that others might live in freedom. Let those who come after see to it that his name be not forgotten.
