best typifies the spirit of our early "Valley" settlers

PIONEERS

Back in the early fifties,
Dim through the mists of years,
By the bush-grown strand of a wild, strange land,
We entered—the pioneers.

Our axes rang in the woodlands,
Where the gaudy bush-birds flew,
And we turned the loam of our newfound home,
Where the eucalyptus grew.

Housed in the rough log shanty,
Camped in the leaking tent,
From sea to view of the mountains blue
Where the eager diggers went,

We wrought with a will unceasing,
We moulded, and fashioned, and planned
And we fought with the black and we blazed the track
That ye might inherit the land.

Take now the fruit of our labour,
Nourish and guard it with care;
For our youth is spent, and our backs are bent
And the snow is in our hair.

HOW GREEN WAS OUR VALLEY?

In 1813, George John Green was born to Samuel Green, farmer, and Julia (nee Clark), in Sudbury, England.

Sudbury, a borough in the county of Suffolk, on the river Stour, was formerly an important medieval wool town. The 18th century artist Thomas Gainsborough was born there in a house that is today an arts centre.

George arrived in Australia on the "PORTLAND" with 177 other convicts in February 1832. He had previously been employed as a farm labourer and stockman, but was tried and convicted, at Winchester, of stealing chickens. He was sentenced to 7 years hard labour, and, whether through choice or otherwise, he was almost immediately transferred to the "PORTLAND" and shipped out from Portsmouth. Little is known of his first few years in Australia, but the 1837 Convict Muster listed him as being on "Ticket of Leave" working for a Mr C Windeyer at Dungog, where he later, at the age of 45, married Priscilla Dobson, who was then 18. Priscilla was the daughter, born in Patterson, NSW, in 1839, of Roger Dobson and Susannah George (nee Loftley). Both parents were serving convict sentences, on the completion of which they married at Lyndhurst Vale.

The father had been deported on the "OCEAN" in 1823, to serve a life sentence. The 1828 census showed him as being on "ticket of leave" employed by a Mr J P Webber at Markham - Patns Plns. (Editor's note - He must have behaved himself to have ticket of leave after only four years of a life sentence).

The mother, Susannah, was born in 1815 at East Dereham, Norfolk - not far from the Royal estate at Sandringham. She was deported for stealing a five shilling note, She was five months pregnant when the ship left port. The baby was born prematurely during the voyage, and died a few days later. This was quite a few years before Priscilla was born.

Priscilla and George Green, in about 1864, moved to Dingo Creek area, where they took up a grant of 80 acres, in close proximity to other selections taken by Priscilla's parents (George and Susannah Dobson) and her grandparents (Susannah's mother and father, Thomas and Susannah Loftley) who had made their own way to Australia, (After the death of Roger Dobson, Suzannah married David Irvine in 1865 a third marriage for both.)

George and Priscilla had five children - Susannah, Hannah, John George, Samuel Alfred, and Roger.

The Green family settled on the property they called " Lyndhurst Vale " after the town in the Dungog area where they were married, and became respected as pioneers of the the district. In 1882 George was a signatory to a letter of petition to have a school established at Bobinⁿ , listing as future pupils his two youngest children Samuel and Roger, who commenced school when it opened in June 1883.

George's family became involved with the other Green family of the district when their eldest daughter Suzanna married Samuel Green, son of Thomas and Maria (nee Pearce) who had arrived from Somerset England in 1848.

The Green family also became involved in a big way with the Brewer family. Their daughter Hannah married William Brewer and their son Samuel Alfred married Mary Alice Brewer. Their eldest son John George (my grandfather) married Frances White, daughter of David White and Flora (nee Henderson), in 1894, raised their family at Marlee, and moved to Comboyne in 1916, my grandfather taking the water tank there on the back of a pack horse.

George Green died at Lyndhurst Vale in 1886 and Priscilla continued to live there with her youngest son Roger, who never married, It must have been a lonely and sometimes frightening time for her, especially in 1900 when the "Governor" bushranger brothers came to the farm shortly before being captured. She died there in 1925 after being a widow for 39 years. Our valley must have been a very fertile place because the descendants of these families now total in the thousands, and many of them have remained in the area or surrounding districts.

PRISCILLA GREEN, Then passed away at Bobin on Friday morning last, one of the oldest and most respected residents of the Upper Manning, in the person of Mrs. Priscilla Green, relict of the late George Green. The late Mrs. Green was 88 years of age, and succumbed after an illness of 12 days, the cause of death being senile-decay. About 60 years ago, the subject of this notice, with her husband and three children, went to Bobin to settle on a selection of 80 odd acres, and therefore can be regarded as a pioneer of the populous and fertile locality that has been her home for over half a century. Her husband predeceased her by four years. The late Mrs. Green was a native of the Williams River, and was one of the sturdy, brave women to whom Australia owes so much as a pioneer. Her direct family is: Mr. G. Green (Comboyne), and Mrs. W. Brewer, Mrs. B. Green, another daughter, predeceased her. She leaves over 200 grandchildren and 50 great-grandchildren. The funeral took place on Saturday morning last, the interment being in the Marles Cemetery. Rev. The Life Story of Mr. C. W. Green

Bill Green was born at North Sydney on 8th April 1917. His father was a builder and his mother's family were sawmillers on the Central Coast. He went to North Sydney Boys High School to Intermediate Certificate - then worked and studied accounting, becoming a Chartered Accountant in 1939 - with the 3rd highest pass in N.S.W.

One of his early clients was Scotty Henderson, with whom he started Veneer & Plywood P/L - peeling imported logs at Glebe and he soon decided to leave Accountancy and give his full attention to the veneer mill.

Bill looked at log supplies in the Hastings - or more precisely the Forbes River area when the War made importing logs difficult. By 1941 Bill and Scotty had sold their Sydney business and the company interest moved to Yarras. But at this point both men enlisted.

Bill served in New Guinea as a gunner. While still a soldier, on the 17th June 1942 he married Mary Nell who came from Moree where her father was a butcher.

Bill came to the Hastings to stay in 1944 when he started sawmilling at Snake Gully at the foot of Kennedy's Mountain, down which they built a tramline to bring logs from the mountain top to the mill log yard.

In 1945 the move was made to Yarras at the junction of the Forbes, Hastings Rivers where Maurie Thompson had set up the veneer lathe. Bill, Maurie and Mattie Coombes were the original crew - and they produced the first veneer in November 1945.

Despite amazing difficulties - initially very primitive equipment - no main power for the first 13 years - severe floods which left them with their "flying fox" as the only link with town - to mention a few, Yarras Mill grew to become a major producer of quality plywood. The 120 inch veneer lathe was designed and built at Yarras - it was the largest veneer lathe in the Southern Hemisphere.

Mill buildings grew until the dry veneer and plywood section was housed in a building covering over one acre of land.

Housing was provided for thirty families in cottages built by the company. single men's quarters were provided and an excellent mess provided too.

Before he retired (due to ill health) in 1974 Bill saw "his Yarras Mill" produce white birch panelling for the Sydney Opera House.

James Beale who worked for the Company from 1946 - 79 said after Bill's death in 1987 - "It was Bill's indomitable spirit

- and determination to succeed - always coupled with a lovely sense of humour - that has helped me most."

Despite a busy life, Bill served on the Hastings Shire and Oxley Councils for 9 years.

Bill and Mary had 2 sons - Bill and Jm. and 2 daughters Clem and Jo and Bill made time to take them for a surf at Bonny Hills - a fishing trip to the North Shore - a day at Pony Club - or an afternoon at the football.

"The Rise and Fall of the Yarras Mill" was dedicated to Mr C.W. Green by Winifred Godfrey on 25 -9-1988.
